OUR STORY

Tea & Tarot is located in historic Downtown Madison, CT. The Colonial style red house was the home of Abigail Meigs, who lived in the home in the late 1700s. According to local history, Abigail who to host tea and spinning parties in the home. In effort to protest importation taxes on British goods, she would only serve herbal tea to her guests!

This realization about the home wasn't discovered until after Tea & tarot opened, proving to be a sign of good fortune to all those who seek high quality tea!

Our mission is to help people find their way through life by providing a space where they can connect with others in a safe environment while exploring their own personal wellness journey. We are small business folk trying hard every day against all odds because dreams really do come true!
